Predictions for Khiyah Women
"In Ten Years..."

*Audra Enczur will be working at the Ringling Brother's Circus as the "Tatoo Woman" because she will have received so many free tatoos. In the off-season she will travel to African villages and to buy homemade candles which she will resell to the Body Shop.

*Tami Weis will be living in New York as a world famous clothing designer and on the weekends she will play the piano in Bloomingdale's just for fun.

*Nicole Jordison will own an adults-only lingerie store called "Nicole's Naughty Nighties." She will also have plenty of tanning beds in the basement so that she will always look like she just stepped off the plane from Florida.

*Many Barber will become a writer and photojournalist who does exposes on rock stars. Later, she will be offered the position of editor of Rolling Stone magazine, but will be asked to step down after the board discovers her history of mail fraud with Columbia House Records.

*Anita Medeiros will open her own Red Lobster franchise so that she can bring fresh seafood to people all over the world.

*Sarah McCarty will write women's self-help books and the book "How to Have a Healthy Relationship: Knowing When to Tell Him I Hate You and I Hope You Die" will be number one on the charts for months. After the success of her book she will have a call in radio show entitled "Talk to Dr. Sarah."

*Jena Collinge will design and model her own line of beach volleyball wear. She will also become ESPN's host of all volleyball programming. Later in her successful career she will have quite a scare when she realizes that someone has been stalking her. She will learn that it is the jealous has-been Gaby Reece trying to reclaim her position. Sorry Gaby.

*Stephanie Geneser will move back home to Granger, have five kids, and open a day-care. Until one day she decides to chuck it all, move to LA, become a stand-up comedian, and marry a boy toy half her age.

*Michelle Travis will become the National Education Association's Teacher of the Year. When appearing on the Jay Leno show for the honor, she is amazed to discover that old Dallas football star, Troy Aikman is also a guest. They meet, fall in love and retire at a ranch in Dallas.

*Nicole Carlson will become a flight attendent so that she can get free flights to Seattle. But after serving one too many airline meals she decides to stay in Seattle and gets a job at an aquarium as an animal psychologist where she discovers the secret language of the sea cow.

*Amy Essex becomes bored with the constant yapping of her patients in her family therapy practice and decides to vacation in New Orleans. While there, she realizes her true calling and becomes a madam for high society travelers. Later she writes a tell-all biography that turns into a movie of the week.

*Laura Maupin receives new and improved breast implants and becomes a star on Baywatch Nights where she sings duets with David Hasselhoff. She travels to high schools and speaks on the importance of staying in school so that you can have a truly meaningful career. Later she records a CD of her favorite songs from the show and it tops all of the charts in Europe.

*Megan Tesar becomes a runway model for Calvin Klein's new "slouch look" clothing line. This marketing technique is so popular that soon Megan is gracing the covers of Vogue and Cosmo sporting her unique style of slouchy-ness.

*Kelly Jones becomes a lobbyist in Washington for strippers and lap dancers. She campaigns vigilantly against movies like "Showgirls" because they do not provide accurate pictures of her clients. She will also make an exercise video using stripper techniques that she hopes will better educate the public. She makes millions and retires early to the Grand Cayman islands.

*Barbara Walden will become such a wonderful long-distance opererator that Sprint names her the new "dime lady." She is also partially responsible for the low-cost video phone programs that are set-up worldwide because she knows the importance of being able to "reach out and touch someone."

*Cynthia Nyanjom works as a translator at the United Nations for several years before opening up her own business importing jewelry from around the world. But Hollywood is where she finally settles down because movie stars all want Cynthia to do their hair.

*Tuesday Miller will be the captain of the Olympic women's softball team in the year 2000. She becomes a correspondent for NBC sports and becomes the first woman ever to produce and anchor the network's World Series coverage. After living on the fast track for a few years, she becomes a little league coach for her quadruplets.

*Amy Wood will live in Lamoni on and off for the next decade until Graceland finally offers her a job as a career counselor in the CAP center. She will also open up the only non-Graceland sponsored dance club to ever succeed in Lamoni.

*Erika Moore will live in Tula for several years and because she loves children she will open up her own children's talent agency. She starts by representing the boy from the Welch's ads, and soon every parent from LA to New York wants Erika to their child's agent. So she merges her company with Disney and moves her office to Orlando where it is always warm!

*Tammy Rains will take a part-time job at a diner while she is in graduate school until a famous French chef eats at her restaurant and immediately offers her a position at his exclusive chef school in France. Later, she will have her own television show on Lifetime that explains how to cook champagne meals on a beer budget.

*Tosha Brown will head off to clothing school after leaving Graceland. She will become a buyer for major department stores and soon her name will be associated with stores ranging from Gap to Gucci. She will design her own signature line of clothing and the Tosha namebrand will be sold exclusively on the Home Shopping Channel.

*Sarah Baughman will work on a cruise ship as an activities director and spends her days traveling to many exotic ports. She saves her money and buys a villa in the Canary Islands off the coast of Spain with her many male servants. Unfortunately she cannot speak Spanish she dropped out of Senor's class while at Graceland.

*Sarah Salinas will become a stunt double for action adventure movies thanks to all the practice she had doing volleyball rolls at Graceland. After a knee injury while filming Speed 4 starring Keaneau Reeves, she will return to Graceland to coach the women's varsity team to National Championships.

*Jana Booth will be a member of the US Congress after serving on President Clinton's child welfare reform program after he is miraculously re-elected in 96. In the year 2004 she will become the youngest presidential candidate to win-and also the nation's first female president. She will ask Colin Powell to serve as Vice President and Newt Gingrich to serve as the water boy for the stables at Camp David.

*Jenny Hankins will be named director of a Weight Watcher's program called "You don't look fat, I look fat!"She sells her secrets for a cookbook that tops the bestseller lists and then, with the money, writes and stars in a Broadway musical that chronicles the story of her life.

* Nina Guidry will work for Warner Brothers and her voice will be used in cartoons of the 21st century. She will become famous for her very unique laugh that she gives her characters. She gets out of the business after she makes her first million & moves to Palm Beach to sell condos.

* Dyane Raimondo will get her start in law enforcement by becoming an undercover DCI agent at Quickening. Later, she joins the FBI where she is assigned to protect the new Commander in Chief -- Jana!

* Jessica will become a character who works at Disneyland due to her spunky personality & ready smiles. She is quickly promoted to official greeter as one of the Seven Dwarfs.
